DETAILED ACTION

Response to Arguments

1. Applicant's arguments, see page 10, filed 2/20/07, with respect to the rejection(s) of claim(s) 1 and 9 under 35 U.S.C. §102(b) have been fully considered and are persuasive. Therefore, the rejection has been withdrawn. However, upon further consideration, a new ground(s) of rejection is made in view of newly discovered prior art.
2. Applicant's arguments, see page 12, filed 2/20/07, with respect to the rejection(s) of claim(s) 2-8, 10 under 35 U.S.C. §103(a) have been fully considered and are persuasive. Therefore, the rejection has been withdrawn. However, upon further consideration, a new ground(s) of rejection is made in view of newly discovered prior art.
3. Specifically, the applicant has amended the claims to include the limitation of "first and second control panels are interchangeably mounted..." and the examiner agrees that Schober does not disclose this feature.

Claim Objections

4. Claim 11 objected to because of the following informalities: "a second control panel configure to" should read --a second control panel configured to--. Appropriate correction is required.

Double Patenting

5. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. A nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting rejection is appropriate where the conflicting claims are not identical, but at least one examined application claim is not patentably distinct from the reference claim(s) because the examined application claim is either anticipated by, or would have been obvious over, the reference claim(s). See, e.g., In re Berg, 140 F.3d 1428, 46 USPQ2d 1226 (Fed. Cir. 1998); In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) or 1.321(d) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent either is shown to be commonly owned with this application, or claims an invention made as a result of activities undertaken within the scope of a joint research agreement.

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Claim 1-19 provisionally rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-7, 15-19 of copending Application No. 10/412304. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the claims fully encompass each other. Both disclose interchangeable control panels for a washer and dryer. Also disclosed are the various key input means for operation and displays. The panels, also called rear covers in the copending application, are interchangeably mounted to either the washer or the dryer, each appliance with its own detachable control unit.

This is a provisional obviousness-type double patenting rejection because the conflicting claims have not in fact been patented.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

6. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

Art Unit: 1746

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

7. Claims 1-6, 8-16, 18-19 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Lyu et al. (Lyu).

The applied reference has a common assignee with the instant application.

Based upon the earlier effective U.S. filing date of the reference, it constitutes prior art under 35 U.S.C. 102(e). This rejection under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) might be overcome either by a showing under 37 CFR 1.132 that any invention disclosed but not claimed in the reference was derived from the inventor of this application and is thus not the invention “by another,” or by an appropriate showing under 37 CFR 1.131.

Lyu discloses interchangeable control panels 20a and 20 for a washing machine A and a dryer B. Lyu refers the the panels as covers, but in essence are similar, if not identical, to the control panels disclosed by the applicant. Each appliance has its own controlling part consisting of displays, keys, etc. referred to as 22a and 22 and its own controller 12 and 12a thereby reading on claims 2-6, 8, 12-16, 18. The panels are interchangeable with each control part and unit. The panels are on the tops of the machines.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

8. Claims 7 and 17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Lyu in view of Broker. Liquid display devices are common and cannot be considered novel. Broker et al. disclose the use of a liquid crystal display screen that is capable of receiving input parameters (col. 2 line 30-31). It would have been obvious at the time of the invention to modify Lyu, and include LCD displays, as they are a known means to receive input parameters.

Conclusion

9. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
